

G2C2: <http://g-2-c-2.org/>

G2C2 (Genetics/Genomics Competency Center) is an online repository of genomics educational materials, peer-reviewed by and for genetic counselors, nurses, pharmacists, physician assistants, and physicians.

G3C: <http://g-3-c.org/>

G3C (Global Genetics and Genomics Community) is a bilingual collection of unfolding video case studies for use with students and practicing healthcare providers learning basic genetic/genomic concepts.

Insurers Webinar Series: <https://www.genome.gov/insurersgeneticstesting/>

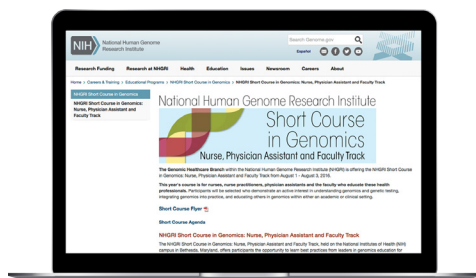

In a collaboration between NHGRI and the Blue Cross Blue Shield Association, thirteen webinars were produced by volunteer experts to prepare insurers to understand genetic testing strategies, interpretations, outcomes and patient care, and use that understanding in making sound decisions regarding the healthcare activities of their insured.

NHGRI Family Health History Tool Conference: <https://www.genome.gov/27565264/>

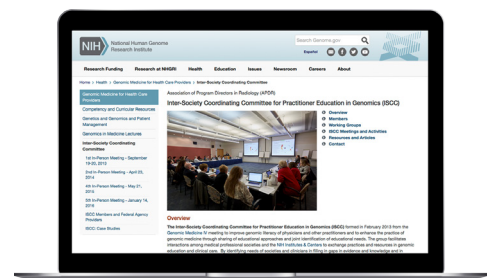

This conference in June 2016 gathered federal, insurance, vendors, and health professionals to improve personal health by responding effectively to rapid changes in Family Health History data uses, Health Information Technology (HIT) capabilities, and research opportunities.

“My Family Health Portrait, A tool from the Surgeon General”: <https://familyhistory.hhs.gov/>

NHGRI Short Course in Genomics: Nurse, Physician Assistant and Faculty Track: <https://www.genome.gov/shortcourse/healthprofessionals/>

This course, targeted to nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and the faculty who educate these health professionals, offers participants the opportunity to learn best practices from leaders in genomics education for health professionals. Applications will be accepted in March 2017.

Inter-Society Coordinating Committee for Practitioner Education in Genomics (ISCC): <https://www.genome.gov/ISCC>

Created to further genomics education among healthcare practitioners, the ISCC shares education advances, materials and ideas through in-person gatherings and regular calls. The next in-person meeting is January 24, 2017.